

Rules and Regulations for 2011 Pirate's Challenge

- 1) A team shall consist of four persons, all over the age of 18.
- 2) Registration is $25 per team. (Registration form is at bottom of this page.) The first ten registrations received will be accepted with numbers nine and ten being designated as alternates. Your team will be notified of acceptance. *If an alternate team does not get a chance to participate the $25 registration will be refunded.
- 3) Each team shall provide a team name when registering and present a team roster to the event organizer by 1:00 PM the day of the event.
- 4) Each team member will be required to sign a liability waiver
- 5) If there are less than eight teams pre-registered registrations will be accepted until one hour prior to the start of the event. If there is not an even number of teams at the beginning of the event, one team (chosen at random) will receive a bye for the first round.
- 6) Competition will be "head to head", single elimination. Rules will be given immediately prior to the event.
- 7) Each team is encouraged to create and wear a "team uniform" (matching t-shirts for example).
